

As a Flight Attendant I beg you not to change the rules to allow cell phone usage in flight. There is no proof that it will not interfere with cockpit controls. It's already hard enough to get passengers to listen to us & safety demonstrations without cell phone added to the mix. There will be an amazing amount of air rage & terrorists will be able to coordinate more effectively. Please keep the skies free of cell phone usage.